ABOUT FERNANDEZ MEDIA GROUP

Fernandez Media Group LLC is an independent film production company focused on developing, producing, and supporting original stories for film and television. The company combines hands-on production experience with a commitment to distinctive characters, culturally grounded storytelling, and filmmakers who have something meaningful to say.

OUR MISSION

To bring compelling stories to the screen while creating opportunities for emerging artists and filmmakers to develop their work from concept through production.

WHAT WE DO

DEVELOPMENT

Original film and television concepts, story development, treatments, screenplays, pitch materials, and project packaging.

PRODUCTION

Independent film production with support across casting, location scouting, scheduling, crew coordination, camera, sound, and on-set execution.

CREATIVE COLLABORATION

We work with filmmakers and artists to help turn strong ideas into practical, producible projects—while keeping the creative voice at the center.

OUR APPROACH

STORY FIRST — Characters and narrative drive the production.

AUTHENTIC VOICES — Stories can be entertaining while remaining grounded in real communities and experiences.

HANDS-ON — We understand the realities of independent production and build creatively around available resources.

LONG-TERM — The goal is to develop projects and relationships that can grow beyond a single production.

SELECTED PROJECT

LOVE ON DELIVERY

Written & Directed by Terie Fernandez

Produced by Anil Sankaramanchi & JJ Fernandez
